GSPS Body Worn Camera Procedure

Body worn cameras shall be used to record all investigative and enforcement activities in compliance with GSPS Body Worn Camera Procedure.

They are intended to capture specific events; it is not intended for 24-hour recording.

The goal of equipping uniformed officers with body worn cameras is to assist the Service to:

- Improve overall community safety
- Enhance public trust and confidence in the police
- Capture an accurate record of police officer interactions with the public
- Strengthen the commitment to bias-free service delivery by officers to the public
- Provide improved evidence for investigative, judicial and oversight purposes
- Ensure fair and timely resolution of complaints and reduce unwarranted accusations of misconduct

GSPS Body Worn Camera Privacy

Public Places

Officers shall start recording their body worn cameras when they are engaging or about to engage a member of the public in an investigative or enforcement activity

At the earliest opportunity, officers shall inform the public member that they are being recorded.

In the absence of any legal limitation outlined within the procedure, officers are not required to turn off the camera.

Private Places

A place where a person(s) enjoy a reasonable expectation of privacy.

- Consent
- With a Warrant
- Exigent Circumstances

Procedure speaks directly to officers in schools, religious places, hospitals and private residences.
